How to cite references PhL 3.31.13

I have not paid much attention to this, and probably I have done it wrong.

1. Here is one recommendation (a private item)

http://tim.thorpeallen.net/Courses/Reference/Citations.html

and his examples look like this

Ingmanson, D. E. and Wallace, W. J., 1985, Oceanography: An Introduction, Wadsworth, Belmont, CA, 530 p.

Notice initials afeter first name, date up front. See site for more comments.

2. The Modern Language Association (MLA) establishes ....

http://www.library.cornell.edu/resrch/citmanage/mla

Lowi, Theodore, Benjamin Ginsberg, and Steve Jackson. Analyzing American Government: American Government, Freedom and Power. 3rd ed. New York: Norton, 1994. Print.

Their strange feature is that the first other is done last name first while the others are not. This source does not use initials. Notice also the strange city: publisher,date idea. The word Print is also strange.

Other suggestions:

Kidder, T. (1981). The soul of a new machine. Boston, MA: Little, Brown & Company.

It seems that every organization is different, so I will just do it my way.
